Piscatory Card.
The subscriber tenders his profound acknowledgments to the appreciative citizens of Bangor, for the generous patronage they have extended to him for more than the quarter of a century past, during which he has been engaged in piscatorial labors; and he takes this momentous occasion to express his unhesitating belief, that they intend to continue that bountiful patronage for more than a quarter of a century longer, at the expiration of which he will probably retire with his well earned laurels unless his mind shall undergo a revolution, of which he now perceives no prospect, and he takes this opportunity to further express his belief, that, if there is anything he knows, it is FISH!
In view of all this, the Subscriber—who has been brevetted Piscator Major since his last communication—has the honor to announce that he will continue the domestic importation of ichthyological esculents; and that he has made extensive arrangements for their importation from foreign parts.
The domestic ports upon which he will levy contributions, are Boston, Gloucester, Cape Cod, Hull, Portland, Newcastle, Moosehead Lake, Mt. Desert, Wassataquoik, Aboljacknegas, Bas-ahegan, [where the giants congregate in gregarian multitudes] Pemaquid, Musqungus, and other places. The foreign parts are St. John, Petitcodiac, Shediac, Magaguadavic, McAdam Junction, Miramichi, Pomcomcoup, Thibbeauville, and other places whose names are too difficult to enunciate and enumerate.
The esculents with which he designs to regale the people of ichthyological and amphibious tastes and palates, are what, in ordinary language, are denominated Salmon, Shad, Codfish,—fresh and salt—Bass, Halibut, Alewives,—fresh and smoked—Whales, Sharks, Rhinoceroses, Bloaters, Skates, Bluefish, Suckers, Sculpins, Smelts, Catfish, Trout, Eels, Frogs, Perch, Pike, Dolphins, Flying-fish, Sword-fish, &c. Of the crustaceans, Lobsters, Oysters, Clams, Muscles, Oyster-plants, Crabs, Tortoise, Mock-Turtle, and all the other univalves, bivalves and trivalves, that can be obtained from the Bay of Fundy, the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and elsewhere. And ever ambitious to please, he will if desired by any adequate customer, extend his enterprises into the regions of the Plesiosaurus and Ichthyosaurus, and to the Grand Banks, Newfoundland and Labrador, every where to the extent of his ability during the coming season. He expects Prof. Agassiz to bring him several new kinds of Mollusca, when he returns from his exploring expedition, or at least, photographs of them! To conclude, my friends,

Upon my heart and diaphragm,
Your persons and your faces
Are deeply graven, and I am
Enchanted with their traces.
That you will ever keep them there
I make my intercession;
To give you FISH shall be my care,
For STAMPS that make impression!

All orders promptly and enthusiastically attended to.

COMMON SCHOOL REVENUES.

SUPERINTENDENT JOHNSON'S CIRCULAR.

Hon. Warren Johnson, State Superintendent of Common Schools, has addressed a lengthy circular to school committees, town supervisors and district agents.

The circular begins by presenting an abstract of the educational legislation of 1871-72 and then follows a table indicating the present regular sources of school revenue, the approximate, not exact amount of each, and the approximate total to each town and plantation from which certified returns have been received.

The per capita tax 80 cents, is based upon the census of 1870. This with the school revenue from savings banks, which is only the income of six months, payable July 1, 1872, the next payment to be the income of a whole year, and which will probably be twice the amount, together with the school mill tax, which will amount to $424,530, or about one dollar for each scholar, will give as sources of revenue apart from school money raised by the towns, about $1 60 for each person in the State between four and twenty-one years.

The school revenue table alluded to furnishes the largest approximate totals as follows:

Auburn, $7608; Lewiston, $16,876; school revenue available for Madawaska Territory, $8280; Brunswick, $6132; Cape Elizabeth, $6447; Gorham, $4272; Portland, $39,990; Westbrook, $8110; Farmington, $3985; Bucksport, $4342; Deer Isle, $4888; Ellsworth, $6624; Augusta, $9337; Gardiner, $5226; Hallowell, $6483; Vassalboro, $3591; Waterville, $6165; Camden, $5836; Rockland, $8893; St. George, $3054; Thomaston, $3704; Boothbay, $4009; Bristol, $3774; Waldoboro', $5527; Paris, $3676; Bangor, $21670; Brewer, $4014; Dexter, $3616; Hampden, $3709; Oldtown, $5080; Orono, $3472; Bath, $9807; Richmond, $3078; Fairfield, $3750; Skowhegan, $5056; Belfast, $6556; Winterport, $3718; Calais, $7838; Eastport, $5151; Machias, $3404; Pembroke, $3499; Berwick, $3041; Biddeford, $12,912; Buxton, $3282; Kennebunk, $3137; Kittery, $4137; Saco, $7066; York, $3316.

Superintendent Johnson, after giving an opinion of the constitutionality of the mill tax act, on account of doubts having been expressed in regard to it, expresses the belief that a review of the legislation of the past two years affords much that is encouraging to the friends of education. The school revenue has been in a measure equalized, and increased more than one-third. In 1871 the school income required by law was about $625,000; in 1872 this sum has been increased by legislation to $840,690. This affords an average of $3 75 (yearly) to each person in the State between four and twenty one years which is, however, much below the average of the other Northern States, and also below our proper rates, comparing the wealth of Maine with other States.

The subject of county or district supervision in some form will be presented for consideration at the next annual educational convention in August next, when the Superintendent hopes the most acceptable school policy to be pursued will be marked out.

He concludes by stating what should be done by educators by presenting seventeen suggestions for consideration, and finally recommending that every school district should have its "Cold Water Temple." A hundred thousand children should be enrolled upon the pledge list this summer, he says, and adds: "What a mighty influence supplementary to legislative enactment, would thus cross the thresholds of our homes and abide as permanent temperance agencies by our firesides."

BOSTON BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—We see very few buyers around, and the market must be reported dull. Orders are still coming forward, but they are not so large nor yet so numerous as heretofore. Manufacturers, consequently, are slacking up, and measurably curtailing their production. The facility with which, by means of our greatly-improved machinery, goods can be turned out whenever demand becomes active, renders it unnecessary to go on manufacturing when the call is limited. Then, again, the extended scale on which the larger houses do business, makes it almost a matter of necessity with them to cease to produce altogether, under such circumstances, in order to avoid loss, as, if they keep their machinery in motion at all, it is about as easy to produce 1000 as 100 pairs of shoes. The large jobbers are quite busy supplying the near-by and the Western trade. They have been amazingly active during the past three weeks, and, generally speaking, goods suitable to the wants of their customers are not now very abundant. In regard to the retail trade, that is beginning to look up also, and as soon as the ground becomes entirely freed from its icy fetters, so that the agricultural population can once again get fairly at work, it will doubtless be as active as ever.—Shoe and Leather Record.

THE EAST RIVER BRIDGE CAISSON—A Fatal Place for Workmen.—The excitement in regard to the deaths in the caisson of the East River bridge, at the foot of Roosevelt street, New York, is on the increase. All the workmen employed there will probably quit. Coroner Young has resolved to make a thorough investigation of the matter. Thus far the work in the caisson has caused the death of four persons. On Thursday the coroner visited the works and made inquiries of the superintendent and foreman in charge, eliciting the following facts: The mass of timber and masonry is now sunk to a depth of 75 feet; the excavation in the sand is about 10 feet deeper; into this excavation ten engines are constantly forcing currents of air. The men work a watch of two hours and a half, and each man works two watches in twenty-four hours, five hours being considered a day's work. Under the caisson is not considered a healthy climate for persons afflicted with rheumatism, lumbago, gout, neuralgia, and kindred ills, and even the healthiest and strongest workmen generally come up out of the pit completely exhausted. Said one of the workmen to the coroner, "I as well as many of my fellows, suffer terribly from congestions. The most disagreeable feeling is that which the ears experience. As long as I can swallow I can relieve that, but when I can't swallow any longer, I come up. A man who cannot swallow will die." The utmost care is taken by physicians, who examine the men to see that their lungs are sound and in good health when they commence work. It seems almost necessary that in building foundations of stone on solid bottom under water a coffer-dam must be used.

The Indianapolis Journal argues stoutly against the shelving of Colfax as a Vice-Presidential candidate on the Republican ticket, asserting that "his nomination is almost essential to success in Indiana and some other States," and deprecating the plan of "complimentary votes" for ambitious politicians as dangerous in the extreme. It says:—

"Give the country its old ticket, call up its old organization, bring out its old banners under which it marched to defeat Seymour and Blair, wake its old songs and the old enthusiasm will be revived; the Democracy will be shattered and the movement of disappointed malcontents who are seceding Democratic suits will be abortive."

SHIP-BUILDING IN NEW YORK.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

Only a few years ago ship-building was a live business here, and the ship-yards which were situated principally along and on both sides of East River, presented an animated scene. The ship-joiner's eight-hour strike in 1866 sounded the knell of this branch of mechanics, and now the yards are, for the most part, silent and deserted. Where the leviathan was wont to leap joyfully from the waves into its new element, now float listlessly a few old hulks under repair—or more probably there is nothing at all to show that ships were ever built there. Ten years ago there were nearly a dozen yards in active operation in this city and on the Brooklyn side of East River. The principal of these were as follows: In New York, Mr. Webb's yard foot of Sixth street; East River, Jeremiah Simonson, foot of Twelfth street; East River, Messrs. Joyce & Waterbury, foot of Stanton street; East River, Jacob A. Westervelt, foot of Third street; East River and Thomas Collyer, also on the east side. At Greenpoint, Long Island, John Englis & Son, Henry Steers, Lawrence & Foulk and R. C. Poillon, Brooklyn. Of all this list there are none now in operation, except those on the other side of East River. The yards in New York are, without exception, doing nothing. Mr. Webb launched from his yard the grand Sound steamers Bristol and Providence during the strike, and subsequently two noble steamships for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, to run between San Francisco and China. These were the last of Mr. Webb's creation. All the other yards on the New York side ceased operations about the same time. John Englis & Son, Greenpoint, and C. & R. Poillon, Brooklyn, are doing the principal business now, and in fact, nearly all that is being done. Within the past twenty-four months there has been launched from the yard of Messrs. Englis & Son, the steam propellers City of Mexico, 1,500 tons, and City of Merida, 2,200 tons, for the Havana and Vera Cruz trade. Trinidad, (side-wheel), 1,000 tons, launched last October, built for the house of Menenzes & Co., Havana, to run on the north side of Cuba; Falmouth, (side wheel), 1,450 tons, launched about two months ago, to run between Portland and Halifax, and there are at present on the stocks the propellor City of Havana, 2,400 tons for the Mexican mail service (will be launched in about two weeks); side-wheel steamer, not yet named, just being framed, to run between New York and New Haven. The City of Havana is 265 feet over all, and will cost about $300,000. The New Haven boat is 225 feet long, and 80 feet extreme width.

But little is doing at Mr. Steers' yard; the proprietor having become interested in the iron ship-building at Chester, Penn. About three months ago, the Government dredge-boat Gen. Stewart, was launched at Mr. Steers' yard, and it is the last from there.—She is designed for service in keeping the mouth of the Mississippi River in navigable order. A full description of this vessel was given in the Times a few weeks ago. The Gen. Stewart will make her engineer's trial-trip next week.

The Messrs. Poillon have at present on the stocks a propeller 188 feet long, 26 feet beam and 17 feet hold, for the Japanese Government. It will not be ready to launch before the fall. Also, a small propeller, 125 feet long by twenty-three feet beam, and ten feet hold, for the same Government; and the centre-board yacht, Viking, 84 feet long, 23 feet beam and 8 feet hold, for Mahlon Sands. Messrs. Poillon have also, within a few weeks past, launched two ferry-boats for the Astoria and Williamsburg Companies. The yachts Dreadnaught, Dallas, Agnes, the elevator barge Scotia, and the telegraph tug-boat William Orton, have also been turned out from their yard within the past eighteen months or two years.

This completes the catalogue, showing what the ship yards are and have been doing. The material used is all brought from a distance; nothing except a little chestnut timber is obtained within 100 miles of this city. The live-oak is brought from Florida; the white oak from Ohio and Michigan, by way of the lakes, Erie Canal and the Hudson River. Locust, tamarack, (called at the yards hackmatack), yellow pine and red cedar are also used in constructing the vessels, and are brought from a distance

The ship-builders say there is no prospect of a revival of ship-building here until Congress gives merchants an encouragement to build ships, in the way of subsidies. They have been waiting for something of this kind for the past three years, and in the mean time put their money into something that pays them better than ships. The ship-builders say with reference to the free-ship policy, that it would entirely kill ship-building here, and then when war came the Government would have no mechanics to build and repair its navy.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Chicago Times (Dem.) asserts that Charles Francis Adams could not carry a single Western State for President.

Johann Strauss leaves Vienna shortly for Boston, to conduct some of the musical performances at the Peace Jubilee.

One of the Connecticut signers of the Cincinnati call was heard inquiring in Norwich on Wednesday, "where this Convention was to be held, anyway."

Frank W. Bird of Massachusetts says that Mr. Adams's letter has destroyed whatever chance he may have had for the Cincinnati nomination.

The defeat of the resolution offered by Mr. Dickey in the House on Friday, for the final adjournment on the 29th of May, will, it is said, prolong the session of Congress until late in June.

The New York Times speaks of the Tribune philosopher as the "enfant terrible of politics," whose habit of saying the wrong thing at the wrong time "is enough to ruin the finest political combination ever formed."

Out of sheer gratitude, we must assume, the Democrats in the New York Legislature voted for Horace Greeley for Regent of the University—a cheap recompense for heavy partisan service.

Papers and politicians who are very much opposed to any mention of Gen. Grant's military achievements are very fond of harping upon the anti-slavery work of some of the "Liberal Republicans" who are "going to Cincinnati."

The New Haven Journal does not think the parade of names of those favorable to Cincinnati very formidable, and says that aside from Gov. Foster, the Connecticut delegation would not seriously disturb the serenity of a village caucus.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says the Liberal Republican meeting held in that city on the 20th inst. was a failure, and adds that "whichever way the opposition political cat jumps, Wisconsin will give a heavier Republican majority next fall than ever before."

The Pennsylvania Labor Reformers hold their State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and other officers, choosing delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention, and forming an electoral ticket.

Fifteen years ago President Buchanan said, in a Message to Congress, "Ever since the origin of our Government we have been employed in negotiating treaties with Great Britain, and afterward in discussing their true intent and meaning."

The Newburyport Herald closes a review of the political situation thus; "When we think of these small faults as the worst that party hatred can allege, we are inclined to call Grant the most successful President we have ever had."

A Cincinnati correspondent, who claims to have secured an interview with August Belmont, reports that shrewd party manager as opposed to Charles Francis Adams's nomination by the Liberals, and in favor of Judge Davis, with Trumbull for his second choice. He is also reported as asserting that "the Missouri and Virginia movements are the acts of statesmanship that stand out most conspicuously in the last eight years of the Democratic party."

The resignation of his seat in the New York Legislature by Col. Rush Hawkins on the ground of the corrupt practices of that body is generally condemned by the Republican press of that State. The Albany Evening Journal insists that "if he was profoundly courageous as he assumes to be superlatively honest, instead of running away he would have remained to face, fight and expose corruption." And the Evening Post of New York city says: "It is no more fitting for a legislator than it is for a general, to resign his place in the face of the enemy. Col. Hawkins would have done better to stay where he was and fight the foe in his front."

OUR GENERAL IN RUSSIA. A grand reception awaits Gen. Sherman in St. Petersburg. It will open the eyes of Europe to the magnificence of which the great northern nation is capable. Our naval officers have already had occasion to testify to it, and say that it is something beyond description. The Emperor of Russia has in grateful remembrance the reception which America accorded the young naval lieutenant from his fleet the other day, and intends to overwhelm Sherman with honors and splendors. Gen. Sherman and young Grant, accompanied by Minister Curtin, will proceed to the Caucasus shortly, and thence to Astrachan. From that point they will go up the Volga to Nijni Novgorod, where Sherman will have a chance to see the jumping off point, and then they will come back to the capital late in May. Banquets, processions, church festivals, promenades, public and private receptions, in great numbers, are already arranged; and it is rumored that the Emperor-Czar will take this occasion to pass a grand review which shall be the means of showing his teeth to Prussia and his other secret enemies. It is prophesied that the review will be one of the grandest ever held in Europe, as several hundred thousand well trained soldiers will participate in it. Gen. Sherman's presence would afford the Czar a good opportunity for passing in review his new and reorganized army; and doubtless the hero of the march to the sea will be delighted with the formidable array of forces which our northern friends have at their disposition.

THE VOTE ON DR. HOUARD'S CASE Gen. Banks concluded his speech in the Houard case, Friday, by charging that the state of affairs in Cuba was due to the failure of the United States to interfere, and he thought this Government had a right to interfere, even though the right of no American citizens were involved. The vote was then taken and Mr. Bingham's amendment was adopted, and the resolution as amended, was adopted, as follows:—

Be it Resolved, That in the judgment of this House, the said John Emilio Houard was and is a citizen of the United States by birth and continued and uninterrupted choice, and as such is entitled to all and every protection from the Government, and in the opinion of the House the President should promptly demand his unconditional release and the restoration of his property, which has been confiscated to the use of the Spanish Government, unless it shall be made to appear, upon investigation, to the satisfaction of the Executive Department, that said Houard had been held for and duly convicted of an offence committed by him within the jurisdiction of Spain, and has been prosecuted therefor under the authority of law, and according to the regular course of proceedings usual in like cases; and that the privileges secured to citizens of United States by the seventh article of the treaty of the United States with Spain, dated the twenty-seventh of October, 1795, were neither denied nor disregarded in his trial.

The vote adopting the resolution as amended was one hundred and forty-three yeas to forty-five nays. The New England members present and voting are recorded as follows: Yeas, Messrs. Banks, Bell, Buffinton, Crocker, Eames, Kellogg, Starkweather and Twichell. Nays, Messrs. Brooks, Dawes, Frye, Hale, Hoar, Peters, Poland and Willard.

BURNED TO DEATH. A shocking tragedy occurred at New Scotland, N. Y., Friday morning. A family consisting of Mr. Volmer, his wife and five children, Volmer's mother and his wife's step-father occupied a two-story building which took fire and Volmer, his wife, and one child only escaped, while all the others perished in the flames.

PATENT IMPROVED
ICE PRESERVER.
This Preserver is made of felt, flannel, and other materials which are non-conductors of heat, and as to its durability, it will last during one's natural life with ordinary care.
There is not a question but what it will save from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of ice used in Hotels, Boarding-houses, and Hospitals, to say nothing about the great amount of travel saved by servants. One pitcher of ice each day for a boarder's room in the heat of summer is all that would be required if covered with this Preserver.
As a cover for a pitcher of cold water to preserve it in that state, and protect it from the dust and impurities in the atmosphere which water always takes up, it is worth double the money asked for them. Where water is obtained from cold springs in cases of sickness, with no ice, and it is desirable to keep it cool, this Preserver is invaluable.
Think of the value of it to a sick person longing for a drink of cold water during the hours of a hot summer night. The difference between an invalid reaching out of bed and taking a swallow of pure ice or cold water, or one from a pitcher of tepid water that has been taking up the poison in the atmosphere of a sick room for eight or ten hours, is not to be measured by dollars and cents by any one who values health or comfort.
Think of the luxury and comfort it would afford to thousands of factory girls in the heat of summer, where four girls working together could furnish themselves with one for less than one dollar each, and by placing it over a two quart pitcher of ice in the morning they would find it sufficient for the whole day.
If it were only to keep a pitcher of cold water free from the dust common to all cotton, woolen, and other factories, the price would be no object, especially if the health of the operatives was taken into account.
The value of this Patent Ice Preserver in the Southern States must be apparent to every one, where ice is frequently sold for six or eight cents per pound, as a person can take a common earthen two quart pitcher and put into it four or five pounds of ice, and place it under one of these Preservers and it will be from twenty-four to thirty hours before it all melts, with the thermometer from seventy five to eighty-five above zero.
For the sake of introducing them extensively I have put the price as low as I can and leave a fair business profit.
It is all important that in placing the Ice Preserver over the pitcher that the bottom should rest fair upon the table to exclude the air. They will be got up to order highly ornamented or in any way parties may desire.
The Flannel lining undergoes a chemical preparation which prevents it from being injured by the moisture.
Orders will be received for the Improved Patent Ice Preserver by the dozen, or for State, County or Town rights, by

THE ALABAMA QUESTION

It has been very palpable to shrewd observers that the favor accorded by the opposition press to the proposition for the withdrawal of a portion of our claims at Geneva, has been solely with the view of assailing the administration with more violence, if it gives way to pressure and consents to change front. Under other than the exigencies of a Presidential campaign the Democratic organs would hardly be found advocating concessions to British demands, and we can imagine the appeals which will be sounded by the same organs to the prejudices of the Fenians, if they can obtain a pretext for charging that we have been bullied by England Not only the regular Democrats, however, but the brevet Democracy that are preparing for the Cincinnati coalition, are ready to pounce upon Gen. Grant and his policy whether he adheres or recedes Ample proof of this amiable disposition is furnished by the course of the N. Y. Tribune which seizes the report of an offer by Secretary Fish of a conditional modification of our case, to arraign the administration with unmeasured severity for having made an "Unconditional Surrender" In order to intensify its reproach, the Tribune refers to its approval of the Treaty and its earnest defense of our right to present our own "case" It says that when the controversy arose over the latter it examined the Treaty and protocols and was satisfied that the claims were excluded by neither and states its position, which has been that of the administration, thus —

We therefore held, and still hold that the Tribunal at Geneva was the only power on earth competent to pass upon them that the attempt of Great Britain to dictate to us what we should put in our own plea was altogether inadmissible that we should calmly await the verdict of the international tribunal if it were against us we should submit, and, if, before it was rendered, England should withdraw, that we should call upon the court for a decision precisely as if she had remained.

The Tribune has not been vigorous in urging this attitude of late but it seemed to have found an opportunity to thrust at the President, and it excuses its tardy complaint against our "case" on the plea that it did not wish to weaken our case at Geneva. While the recent pressure for withdrawal has been testing the President's firmness the Tribune had no such words of support as we have quoted, but rather encouraged the influences brought to bear for a change of policy. As soon as it imagined there were signs of wavering, it assaulted the administration with bitter energy, and evokes the spirit of national pride and prejudice in declaring that a withdrawal is a surrender to the menaces of Great Britain, as damaging to the popular respect for the administration as if it had allowed us to drift into a foreign war

Another indication [illegible] ies that would [illegible] which can be construed as backing [illegible] is given in the reports of Senator Sumner's utterances, in view of rumored concessions by Secretary Fish The Boston Advertiser's special says —

The apprehension that some modification or explanation of our case at Geneva is about to be made appears to be gaining ground, and is greatly strengthened by the positive statements of the prominent New York papers this evening to that effect Senator Sumner remarked yesterday that the administration would receive its severest blow next week, and when asked if he meant that [illegible] Convention replied, [illegible] that Secretary Fish's last letter to Earl Granville which would undoubtedly be made public in the English Parliament in the debate next week would show that this government is receding from its ground on the Alabama question

This shows that Mr Sumner is aware of the tactics that will be pursued in certain contingencies, and that the administration will be assailed, no matter what course it may take. The President has probably appreciated the situation from the outset and the latest dispatches which we have received indicate that he has no intention of abandoning the principle for which we have contended, that of our right under the Treaty. The appeal has been made to Geneva, and he is doubly justified in adhering to the tribunal for judgment, now that it is demonstrated that he would be most [illegible] denounced for a change, by the very parties who are now pretending to favor it The following special to the Boston Journal gives the most probable statement of the present attitude of our Government on this question —

The sensational stories telegraphed hence about the position of the Government on the question of indirect damages are without authority, and substantially without truth. They are the result of the movements of certain parties here who have been agitating the question for political effect The demand for indirect damages has not been withdrawn and will not be withdrawn. What the Government wants is a decision of the question, and it will do all in its power to sustain the arbitration at Geneva If the British Government refuses a decision, upon that Government will rest the responsibility of breaking the Treaty of Washington

The Cincinnati folks have a perplexing question to settle for the political economists The Evening Post, which favors the liberal Democratic gathering says "Free traders may go all the more willingly to Cincinnati as they will be committed to nothing further than the original resolutions under which the entire attempt to give a better direction to the sentiments and measures of the Republican party has been made Any platform reported, or any candidate nominated, in opposition to the main design and constituent principles of the new movement, would not be obligatory of course" Mr Greeley has high hopes in behalf of protection, so that somebody is likely to be gored by one or the other of the horns of this dilemma. It will not be very surprising to see Horace Greeley posting back from Cincinnati with the tails of his white coat snapping in his wake, to haul down the Cincinnati standard and train the guns of the Tribune again on the side of Grant and against the "hirelings of British gold" and the "enemies of American industry" Unadulterated Free Trade may prove too strong a dose for Horace.

The Eastport Sentinel says that there will be no contest over the Republican Congressional nomination in the fifth district. It declares that there is no considerable opposition to Mr Hale in the eastern part of the district, while the western part will present that gentleman as a candidate. It adds that there is no good reason against his renomination, that "the same talent, industry, and worthy ambition that before the age of thirty years gave him the first rank at the Hancock bar have given him a position and influence in the National House of Representatives, that is surpassed by few members of that body and by none whose Congressional experience is no longer than his."

TRUMBULL TRIMMING FOR VOTES. A Washington special says "Mr Trumbull on Friday, demonstrated, in the completest manner, how a Presidential candidate in the Senate, with votes to make, is compelled to eat his own words, and to literally go back on his own record in a manner at once weak and contemptible, because a faction which is about to have a hand in a Convention are likely to make use of that record to the detriment of his own aspirations. The fact is a pitiful one to contemplate. When the proposition came into the Senate early in the present session to pass a bill to adjust and equalize the pay to workmen in the service of the Government under the different constructions of the Eight-hour law, which prevailed for a time after its passage, Mr. Trumbull opposed it very warmly, objecting to its consideration and at last, to embarrass it and defeat it, moved an amendment repealing the Eight hour law altogether His opposition laid the bill away, and it has not been able to receive any attention since. In the Deficiency Appropriation bill the House put an amendment embodying the provisions of that law This amendment was stricken out in the Senate Committee of the Whole, but on Friday an attempt was made to reconsider that action, which succeeded, and the House amendment was agreed to, and Mr Trumbull voted twice with the small majority which carried it, being so zealous as to remain, hat in hand, after he had taken it from the cloak room to leave the Chamber and to record himself on the list of voters. It was noted two or three days before that the Davis men were about to bring Mr Trumbull's record on this bill into the canvass at Cincinnati"

GEN SHERMAN ON THE TREATY The ubiquitous "special" of the N Y Herald has been interviewing Gen'l Sherman at Alexandria, Egypt, and reports the following conversation on the Alabama business

Correspondent—You have read the English press on the indirect claims What do you think of that question?

General Sherman—I think the English people never knew how much they were wronged until the English politicians and the papers, prompted by the politicians told them they were injured and insulted. Certainly we never thought we were advancing any very novel or startling claims At all events, the Geneva reference is the proper place to settle the whole matter We don't want their money As they have already admitted, they did us a grievous wrong British neutrality during our civil war was a fiction and a fraud I have myself taken off from packages of ammunition run in from Nassau English marks and labels, proving indisputably that they came from British sources In fact (here the General called his aide-de camp, Col Audenreid)—you remember, Audenreid, that on the railway platform in Columbia, S C, I found four Armstrong guns made in England—none of the kind ever made in America—and each of these superb weapons bore a plate inscribed

"PRESENTED BY THE MANUFACTURERS TO THE SOVEREIGN STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA"

The General of the Army made this last remark with a humorous twinkle of the eyes which ended in a pleasant laugh when he came to the sovereign State of South Carolina" "I told my artillery officers to take these 'neutrality guns and make them serve the uses of honest men, which I suppose they did thereafter, as some of my best artillery officers were glad to get such artistic tools"

THE MISSOURI BOND FRAUDS The N Y Tribune gives the following account of the Cass County bond frauds which led to the recent frightful massacre of parties implicated:

The horrible story which reaches us from Missouri recalls the discovery of the fraudulent issue of Cass County bonds, made last March These bonds were originally issued fourteen years ago for the use of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, but, some dispute arising as to the fulfillment by the Company of their contract, they were locked up in the County treasury Taken thence by Federal troops during the Rebellion they finally found their way back to the County authorities during the war The railroad company waiving all claim to them, a corrupt Ring resolved to reissue the bonds with accrued interest, the whole sum amounting to $229,000, and Judges Stevenson and Forsyth surreptitiously convened the County Court, and, assisted by James Cline, R B Higgins, and several others, approved the issue of the bonds The conspirators divided their plunder and fled in all directions pursued by officers—Higgins was first caught, and he immediately committed suicide. The others hid for a short time only, and last Wednesday, while travelling in company with Judge Stevenson, Cline and Dutro, fellow criminals, were caught by a mob which seized the train, and most barbarously murdered. Judge Forsyth is reported to have been shot and hanged to a tree in that region The end is not yet, as the Cass County mob is said to be bent on the extermination of the Ring This affair is a fearful commentary on frontier lawlessness

TREATMENT OF DRUNKARDS Additional light is thrown on the question of the treatment of habitual drunkards by some returns just submitted to the English House of Commons During the year ending July 1, 1871, there were 258,274 convictions for being drunk and disorderly in England, Scotland and Ireland, Of this number 17[illegible] were second convictions, 12,065 third convictions and 21,848 had been preceded by three or more convictions. In other words one-quarter of the whole number, very nearly were old offenders and almost one-tenth were habitual drunkards It is absurd to suppose that there is the slightest good to the community or to the drunkard in giving to the 21,848 unfortunate men and women who were the victims of their own appetites a sentence of imprisonment for a specified time Some of them might be saved by the course that is adopted with them Statistics of our own State have been published and show a similar state of affairs. Public opinion ought to be aroused on this, as one of the chief branches of the reform in the administration of criminal law, and a radical change in our method of dealing with drunkards adopted speedily —[Boston Advertiser

FERNANDO WOOD'S FINANCIAL SCHEME Fernando Wood addressed the House committee on banking and currency, Friday morning, in explanation and support of his bill to prevent lock ups of the money market, and preserve an elastic currency, by giving the Treasury authority to loan $45,000,000 of coin and legal tenders whenever asked. The committee are not disposed to favor the bill, two grave objections meeting them at the outset, —viz the proposed amount to be loaned is inadequate to check the evil, and that the government ought not to go into the money loaning and speculating business. Mr. Wood argued that the business of the country demands more currency than it now has, that the government should aim to give it strength and stability, and that it could wisely and safely exercise a check upon the speculative spirit which controls at the financial centres. Mr Hooper, chairman of the committe, expressed his belief that many of the desirable results sought by Mr. Wood's bill might be obtained by requiring the banks to keep a larger reserve on hand, and preserve some adequate relation between their loans and their reserves.

THE LATE PARAN STEVENS. The announcement of the death of Paran Stevens will recall to the public the memory of one whose enterprise and business tact reared for himself a princely fortune, while it contributed largely to the public good and convenience. Col. Stevens was a native of Claremont, N H., but his active business career has been identified mostly with Boston and New York. As a hotel manager, he had probably few equals, and it was owing to his marked executive capacity that he was enabled to manage at the same time six of the largest public houses in this country. Col Stevens was about seventy-three years of age and leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter

The N. Y. Tribune in counting noses for Cincinnati, publishes the following:

This communication from [illegible] Maine shows the hopes formed there of the Convention:

"If the friends at Cincinnati will unite together like patriots and sink all minor issues, put forth a good platform, with candidates to match, I shall not despair of Maine."

This must have emanated from one of the two or three enthusiastic gentlemen who have rushed to Cincinnati with the motto: "L'etat, c'est moi!" The scheme must be sadly in need of bolstering when such nonsense is repeated by its organ.

The California Republican State Convention on Friday, passed resolutions endorsing the Administration of President Grant, and instructing the delegates to the Philadelphia Convention to vote as a unit for his renomination. Thus the extreme west responds to the sentiment of the people on the Atlantic shore.

Extensive Conflagration!

A WHOLE VILLAGE IN ASHES!!

SOUTH CHINA DESTROYED BY FIRE!!

AUGUSTA, April 27, 1872.

I learn from a gentleman from South China, Me., that nearly the whole village was destroyed by fire this morning. Every store and the Masonic Hall, some sixteen buildings, in all, were burned to ashes.

The fire caught about one o'clock in John Wyman's house, caused, as is supposed, by a defective flue, as there had been no fire in that flue for a long time, until the day previous to the fire. Only three or four houses remain. The hotel was not burned. The total loss is estimated at from $20,000 to $30,000. The Masonic Hall was insured in the Ætna of Hartford for $1000. W.

SECOND DISPATCH—LIST OF LOSSES.

The Fire at South China (which is about 12 miles from Augusta) destroyed 18 buildings. Following is the DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE.

NEW YORK, 28. A fire last night in the five story brick building, Nos. 24 and 26 Wooster street, caused a damage of $[illegible]5,000. The first, second and third stories were occupied by Henry Eber, of West 58th street, as an organ manufactory, and the fifth floor was used by the society of co-operative tailors.

When the fire first started there were about eight persons in the tailors' establishment on the top floor. Several escaped by the stairway leading into the street, but three, at work in the rear workshop were cut off by the flames. One of these, Wm. Forden, rushed to the window on the north side and jumped upon a low house beside the burning building, a distance of 25 feet, and was taken off by the firemen. The remaining men, James and John M. Sheny, managed to get down on the fourth floor, but were there cut off by the flames. They then ran to the window in the rear and called to the people beneath to put something on the ground for them to jump on, but before the firemen could give assistance they were burned to death. Erben & Co.'s loss is estimated at $50,000, and the Tailor's Union $5,000. The building and property of Edward Kings was injured to the amount of $10,000.

THE MURDER NEAR ROME.

LOUISVILLE, April 27. It is believed that the man Crawford, of Brandenburg, Ky., found Wednesday in a skiff near Rome, shot through the head, was murdered by two men he had hired to help him take a raft of logs to Tell City. The men who killed him took the raft to Tell City and sold the logs, but waiting for payment until the next morning, the news of the finding of the body came, and the citizens suspecting the parties, arrested one, the other making his escape.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

THE "GOING SNAKE" MASSACRE—ANOTHER VERSION OF THE AFFAIR.

ST. LOUIS, April 27. The Cherokee Advocate, the official organ of the Cherokee nation, states that the attacking party in the bloody affair at Going Snake Court House, some days ago, was the Marshal's posse, and that the Sheriff's guard did not fire until the [illegible]tor, the prisoner on trial, was wounded. The assault was made by Lut Becks, a Cherokee interested in the prosecution of the prisoner. The Sheriff of Going Snake district has made a lengthy circumstantial report of the affair and attaches the entire blame of the massacre to the U. S. Marshal's party.

The Alabama Controversy!

POSITION OF OUR GOVERNMENT!

The Treaty Strictly Adhered To!

OUR CLAIMS NOT WITHDRAWN!

The Responsibility with England!

REPUTED CORRESPONDENCE ON THE COUNTER CASE.

ORIGIN OF SENSATIONAL DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, April 27. The Times publishes the following dispatch from Washington, as if by authority:—

"The sensational dispatches which have been sent from here within the past few days in regard to the action of this Government on the question of indirect claims, are utterly without authority and substantially without truth. They are the result wholly of the manipulations of certain busybodies and political intriguers, who assume to conduct the affairs of both nations over the breakfast tables of such dignitaries as may be inveigled into making them a tender of their hospitalities.

PERSISTENT MISREPRESENTATIONS.

"The only good that has resulted from these pretended outgivings is to convince the Government that no matter what it may do to save the arbitration at Geneva, its action is to be misrepresented for political effect—that is already seen.

OUR POSITION UNCHANGED.

"But the fact is that the position of the Government to-day on this question is unchanged. The indirect claims are not withdrawn. They will not be withdrawn, unless Great Britain makes such a concession inside or outside of the Geneva Tribunal as will grant the point for which they were inserted, to wit: a settlement of the question involved.

OUR RIGHT TO A DECISION.

"The Government is sincerely anxious to save the arbitration. It has been unjustly accused of unnecessary stubbornness in the matter. It has never intimated that it expected any award of pecuniary damages for the indirect claims, and it does not believe the people expect it. But it believed and it still believes, that it had a perfect right to present them, and to have them decided.

ENGLAND RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FATE OF THE TREATY.

"A decision is all it wants, and if Great Britain does not agree to a decision of the question, then she must take the responsibility of not only breaking the treaty, but of refusing to meet this Government's most generous advances in a spirit of fairness and candor."

THE "WORLD'S" REPORT—THE ANIMUS OF THE PRESSURE FOR WITHDRAWAL.

The World's Washington special to-day says:—

"The sensations regarding the status of the correspondence in the matter of the dispute between Great Britain and the United States over the consequential claims made in the American case before the Geneva board are in the main prompted by a disappointed set of railroad brokers, whose market for bonds, good, bad or indifferent, have been ruined in Europe, and who attribute their losses to the status of the treaty."

THE ACTUAL STATUS—THE DOOR STILL OPEN.

"The situation of the facts may be succinctly stated as follows:—

First—No conclusion whatever has been reached between the two governments on the disputed points.

Second—The door is still wide open for a settlement by negotiation.

Third—The point has not been reached where any categorical reply to the note of Great Britain has been made a necessity as to the consequential feature."

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN LORD GRANVILLE AND THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN MINISTERS.

NEW YORK, April 28. The World publishes the following correspondence respecting the presentation at Geneva of the British counter case to the arbitrators, under the 4th article of the Treaty of Washington:—

Earl Granville to Sir E. Thornton. Foreign Office, April 8th, 1872.

Sir—General Schenck informed me on the 2[illegible]d of March that he had written Mr. Fish and told him that he had said to me in confidence that he thought his government would not object to Her Majesty's government putting in their counter case before the arbitrators without prejudice to the position which Her Majesty's government are now maintaining, and the government of the United States would accede to such an understanding; and he stated his expectation of obtaining from Mr. Fish on the 2d or 3d of April, by telegraph, his views on the point. On the 5th inst. Gen. Schenck wrote to me stating that he had received Mr. Fish's reply confirming his opinion. "Mr. Fish," says Gen. Schenck, "informed me that it is the understanding of the United States that the British government is bound under the treaty to file a counter case, and their doing so will not prejudice any position they have taken, nor affect any position of the United States, but the rights of both parties will be the same after the filing as before." Gen. Schenck, whom I have seen to-day on his return from Paris, has verbally confirmed to me this statement. Gen. Schenck afterwards said he had no objection to my communicating his letter to my colleagues or, indeed, announcing it to Parliament. I am, &c.,

(Signed) EARL GRANVILLE.

Earl Granville to General Schenck—Foreign Office, April 9th, 1872. "My dear General Schenck:—I have submitted to the Cabinet my correspondence with you, and the substance of our conversation yesterday on the question of Her Majesty's Government, presenting their counter case to the Tribunal at Geneva on the 15th of this month, without prejudice to the position which they maintain as to the nature and extent of the claims referred to that Tribunal. I enclose a copy of the note I propose to have presented at the same time as the counter case.

Yours truly, &c.,

(Signed) EARL GRANVILLE."

General Schenck to Earl Granville—April 10th, 1872. "My dear Lord Granville:—I received last night your note enclosing a copy of the paper which you propose to have presented at Geneva at the same time with your counter-case. I will hasten to communicate information of it to my government.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) ROBERT C. SCHENCK."

MISSOURI.

RAILROAD TROUBLES.

ST. LOUIS, April 27. A gentleman from the terminus of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad in Indian Territory, says the company moved the terminus from Muskogee to Otakehotsko last Monday, and found the place in possession of white desperadoes under the leadership of a man called "Tiger Bill," who refused to leave. A telegram was sent to Gen. Pope for assistance, and Lieut. Quimby with 15 men was ordered from Fort Riley, Kansas. When the informant left, Quimby had arrived and had notified the outlaws to leave the territory or suffer the consequences, but they still refused to go, and a collision was imminent.

OHIO.

FIRE AND ROBBERY.

CLEVELAND, April 27. A fire at Akron this morning destroyed the office of the Akron Beacon, together with the jewelry stores of Remington, Storer & Co., and Abbey.—Loss $30,000.

BURLINGTON, Vt., April 27. Steamers will commence their through trips on Lake Champlain Monday, four weeks later than last year.

DULUTH, Apri. 27. The ice has cleared from the bay and lake and navigation is open on Lake Superior.

The Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius!!

THE LAVA SWEEPING ALL BEFORE IT!

A Panic in the Adjacent Country!

CONSTANT AND TERRIBLE EXPLOSIONS!

Many Supposed to have Perished!

A SEARCH FOR THE MISSING.

London, April 27. The Naples correspondent of the Telegraph says he visited all the hotels in that city to ascertain if any of the guests were among the persons injured by lava flowing from Mt. Vesuvius. He learned that none was missing and that the fatalities were confined exclusively to the residents of the villages on the side at the base of the volcano.

THE ERUPTION UNABATED—THE PEOPLE TERROR-STRICKEN.

Naples, April 27. There is no abatement of the force of eruption of Mount Vesuvius. Lava continues to flow down the sides of the volcano, destroying everything in its path.—The explosions are distinctly heard in this city. A panic prevails among the inhabitants of the country around the mountain.

LATER—THE LAVA SWEEPING ON—PEOPLE FLYING FROM THEIR HOMES—TOURISTS SUPPOSED TO HAVE PERISHED.

The eruption of Vesuvius continues with dreadful violence. The lava has already reached Sabastiano and threatens other towns. Explosions are constantly heard in this city. The consternation among the inhabitants of the villages and towns which are threatened with danger increases. It is reasserted that many tourists were surrounded by lava and perished. King Victor Emanuel has sent aid to the persons who were compelled to flee from their homes and encamp in the fields.

LATER—ESTIMATES OF THE KILLED.

Rome, April 27. At the Chamber of Deputies to-day, Signor Sella, Minister of Finance, read dispatches from Prime Minister Lanza, who went to Naples last night, rectifying the estimates of the killed given in the telegram of yesterday. Minister Lanza sent word that only 12 persons were killed and 12 injured by running lava.

THE LAVA STILL ADVANCING—VILLAGES DESTROYED.

The villages of San Sabastians and Massadisomina are almost entirely destroyed, but all the inhabitants succeeded in getting away in safety. The lava is now advancing towards the villages of Pouticello, Cercola, Saint George and Portici, which have been abandoned by the inhabitants. The people living in the towns of Terre del Greco, Resina and Boscotrecase have also fled as those places are threatened with destruction. Homeless persons have been provided with temporary shelter. Yesterday lava advanced at the rate of one kilometre an hour, but to-day its pace slackened. While there has been a number of heavy explosions in the interior of the volcano to-day, there has been no trembling of the earth.

THE HOMELESS TO BE PROVIDED FOR.

The Chamber of Deputies have authorized the government to provide for the comfort of the people who have been so suddenly deprived of their homes.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.

SENATE.

Mr. Ramsey called up the postal telegraph bill reported by him from the Committee on Post-office some days since and explained its provisions. It was then laid aside.

The deficiency appropriation bill was taken up, the pending question being Mr. Frelinghuysen's motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Morrill's amendment restoring jurisdiction to the Court of Claims in certain cases of captured or abandoned property, rejected yesterday.

After considerable discussion the motion to reconsider was tabled and the Naval bill was taken up. Among the amendments adopted are the following: For surveying in the Pacific, $50,000, providing that no money appropriated by this act be expended on account of engines contracted for during the war; for making charts $20,000; also appropriating $30,000 for comparing tables of planets discovered by American astronomers.

The bill having been considered in Committee of the Whole it was reported to the Senate. The amendment providing that the number of hours constituting a day's work at the Navy Yards shall be the same as is customary in their immediate vicinity, was rejected.

The bill was laid aside and the Post-office appropriation bill was taken up and read a second time. Without further action the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

It was ordered that the House meet hereafter at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sargent of California made a personal explanation in reference to the press dispatches from San Francisco reflecting on himself and his colleagues in connection with the Goat Island bill. He characterized them as utterly unreliable.

Reports of a private character were made during the morning hour, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and acted on.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Tariff bill, and was addressed by Mr. Wood of New York. He questioned the sincerity of Congress in regard to the passage of any bill to reduce taxation.

Mr. Dawes denied that the War Department receives moneys from the sale of property which was not accounted for.

Mr. Beck of Ky. reiterated that $138,000,000 had been received by the War Department within five years and the Secretary of War failed to tell what had been done with it.

Mr. Garfield of Ohio said he would soon make a specific reply to Mr. Beck's statement.

Mr. Kelley of Pa. said that the Ways and Means Committee should explain this tariff bill.

Mr. Beck said that until Mr. Kelley answered Mr. Finkelnburg's speech he had no right to complain.

Mr. Kelley replied that after three of the majority had spoken they would hear from him, leaving the fourth to cover their rear.

Mr. Beck again charged the War Department with misappropriation, when Mr. Dawes sent for a letter from Quartermaster General Meigs stating that all the receipts of property had been paid into the Treasury.

Mr. Beck insisted that $105,500,000 had been spent by the War Department and not officially accounted for.

Mr. Wood of N. Y. resumed and supported the abolition of duties on articles of universal consumption.

Mr. Burchard followed in support of the bill.

The committee then rose.

The bill amendatory of the law pensioning soldiers and widows of the war of 1812, striking out limitations of service and restrictions as to participation in rebellion, passed. Adjourned till Monday.

Berlin, April 28. The labor troubles continue. Builders and master masons have joined the master carpenters in the lock-out movement. Thousands of working-men are thrown out of employment. Discharged journeymen of all trades have united in an appeal to the public for support. They discountenance the use of force or threats to prevent others from working.

THE CANADA PACIFIC BILL.

OTTAWA, April 27. The most important bill of the session was introduced in the House of Commons last night by Sir Geo. Cartier. It provides for the construction of a Canada Pacific Railway according to the terms by which British Columbia came into Union. The road is to be commenced not later than July, 1873 and completed within 10 years. The proposition of the Government is that the road shall start from Lake Nipissing from which point to the Pacific coast the distance is some 2700 miles.

THE FENIAN INVASION CLAIMS.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 27. In the Parliament the correspondence between the Dominion and Imperial Governments relative to the claim arising from the fenian invasion was laid on the table. The Order of Council gives a general history of fenian invasions from 1866 and points out in what respect the United States failed to do their duty as a friendly power. The Committee urge a communication with the United States, representing the continued crimes of O'Neil and other Fenians in such a manner as would insure their being prosecuted, to conviction and infliction of punishment commensurate with the offences.

MEXICO.

PROGRESS OF THE REVOLUTION.

Matamoras, April 26. Advices from San Luis Potosi to the 11th inst., state that all is quiet there. Stage and telegraphic communication generally re-established. The line to the Rio Grande from Mier is occupied by the Government. Trevino's cavalry are at Reynosa to day. Their slow movements are disheartening the revolutionists. General Guerra, writing on the 19th from the State of Durango, confirms the temporary occupation of Zacatecas by Cadenas. He says the garrison was surprised, and 1000 men, 2000 guns, 11 cannon and $60 000 belonging to the Government were captured.

OTHER MOVEMENTS—TREVINO'S ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE.

A telegram from Saltillo, yesterday, to Camargo, brought thence by a courier, reports that no government force is near Saltillo and also confirms the defeat of the Puebla garrison by Negrete. A merchant who arrived there from the interior reports that Diaz was heard from in Jalisco. He was at the head of a strong division. This is doubtful, as Trevino has received nothing official. To-morrow Trevino publishes an address to the people of Matamoras in anticipation of his attack. He calls on citizens to abandon those who burden the country, and not submit to the caprice of a despot exercising authority illegally.

THE OPPOSING FORCES.

Trevino's forces are so much scattered for the purpose of subsistence in a barren country, that it is difficult to estimate their numbers. A revolutionary bulletin, published at Brownsville, says they number 4000, of which 1800 are infantry and cavalry, 1200 artillery and 1000 infantry supports. Cavallos has 2000 regulars with the National Guard combined behind the fortifications. His flank rests on the river, and his rear is protected by the American commander preserving neutrality. The revolutionists are expected daily.

RISING OF THE LERDISTAS.

Later—A courier from Camargo brings advices to the 24th inst. Rocha has been called to the city of Mexico, owing to a rising of the Lerdistas. Quiroga has moved either with 5000 men. Naranjo remains commanding at Camargo.

SPAIN.

THE CARLIST RISING.

Madrid, April 27. The Carlists have cut the telegraph wires at many points in the Provinces, consequently there have been but few despatches relative to the insurrection received. A band of insurgents attacked the railway station in Balsona, Province of Lenda yesterday, but were repulsed.

HAY. Loose hay is brought in in sufficient quantity to keep the market well supplied with a good fair article at $28 to $30, and the very best qualities at $32 to $33 per ton. Considerable inferior and swale hay is sold at $15 to $20 per ton. Pressed hay is brought into market by rail in large quantity, and sells from the storehouses at $28 to $30 and $34 per ton.

STRAW. Loose straw is worth on the market from $14 to $17 per ton.

OATS are selling at 65 to 68 cents per bushel.

BUTTER. Extra lump butter is scarce and what the dealers would call such would sell readily at 32 to 35 cents per pound, but solid and a fair article of lump is plenty, and sells at 25 to 28 and 30 cents per pound, according to quality.

EGGS are coming into market quite plenty, and lots sold to-day at 17 to 18 cents per dozen; but the Boston market report for yesterday, Friday, quoting them at 17 to 19 cents, will soon place them at lower figures.

POTATOES. The price on the market for this quality of fruit seems to be about 45 cents, for Jackson's. The Early Rose variety sold at 55 to 60 cents per bushel.

DRIED APPLES are not plenty on the market as the dealers are mostly supplied with a western fruit. A good article of home-raised is worth from 11 to 12 cents per pound.

FATAL ACCIDENT. We learn from conductor Little of the Pullman car "North American," that on Friday afternoon as the train on the N. B. & C. railroad from McAdam Junction to Woodstock reached a crossing about 8 miles beyond Canterbury, a boy was seen on the track endeavoring to get a mule across and out of the way. The engineer saw him, reversed the engine and whistled "down brakes," but before the train could be checked it had passed over the boy, who had succeeded in getting the stubborn animal he was leading off the road, but fell himself between the rails. His legs were both horribly crushed and nearly severed from the body, but he was still alive and the train men took him on board and to Woodstock, where surgical aid was obtained. His injuries were so severe, however, and the loss of blood so great that he lived only until 5 o'clock Saturday morning. We understand that the officers complain of the inhumanity of several hotel keepers in Woodstock, who refused to allow the poor wounded, dying lad to be brought into their houses. He had every possible care, however, from the railroad men. His name was Ritchie, and he resided near Canterbury, whither his remains were taken on Saturday.

THE STATE FAIR. We have already announced the decision of the Maine State Agricultural Society that the annual Exhibition and Fair will be held here on the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of September. Mr. S. L. Boardman of the Maine Farmer is Secretary of the State Society, and makes some suggestions in his paper in relation to the forthcoming exhibition.

The city authorities and citizens of the 'Queen City of the East,' have by appropriation, private subscription and guaranty, placed a sum in the hands of the Trustees, so ample as to insure the success of the exhibition in advance; and with favorable weather the results cannot fail to be satisfactory.

* * * * *

In 1857 the State Society held a fair in Bangor, which was the third exhibition of the Society. It proved successful in every respect, being self sustaining besides adding a handsome sum to its reserved fund. The guaranty pledged by the citizens to cover any loss, was of course not needed. At this exhibition, the show of horses was said to be superior to any the Society had then called together. That was fifteen years ago; and since then what vast changes have taken place in our State—in the general intelligence of its inhabitants, in its industrial progress, in its means of transportation, in the settlement of a large portion of its territory then almost an unbroken forest. If Bangor was then thought a favorable point for a State Fair—and its success proved that it was—how much more is it so to-day? Its local population is nearly twenty thousand, and it is the centre of business for the eastern portion of our great State. Since the period when the exhibition was held there before, Bangor has been placed in railroad communication with other parts of the State so that a much larger number of those interested can avail themselves of its privileges than was possible at that time. The European & North American, the Bangor & Piscataquis, the Dexter & Newport and the Belfast Division of the Maine Central railroads have all been completed since that date, and are now in operation, affording so many avenues to bring distant portions of the State in easy and rapid communication with Bangor, thus securing not only a larger attendance, but an increased interest in the coming exhibition.

The art of agriculture has also made rapid advances during the same period, within the radius of the section likely to be most largely represented at the fair of 1872. Aroostook county has been developed to a wonderful extent, and her sturdy farmers will come down in great numbers to this fair, bringing with them the choicest of their animals and the best of their productions. The breeding of fine horses and neat cattle has also received much attention from some of the leading men of eastern Maine; and the State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts—in 1857 a thing unthought of—has been located so near Bangor, that no enterprising farmer or farmer's son should fail to pay it a visit during the week of the exhibition. Indeed we apprehend the simple fact that the State Fair of 1872 and 1873 is to be held in Bangor will be of great value to this institution in the opportunity it will give farmers from other parts of the State to visit its farm and buildings, thereby giving them a practical acquaintance with its tangible existence. And aside from all this, Bangor offers peculiar advantages as the place for holding the State Fair. It has superior and ample hotel accommodations; it has a population noted for enterprise and public spirit; it is the headquarters of a large County Agricultural Society, a vigorous Horticultural Society, and the only Poultry Society in Maine—all of which will work with the State Society for the success of the Fair, and its means of communication with all points in Maine, by railroad and boat are second only to that of one other place in the State, and in some respects even superior to that. All these are but auxiliaries to the success of the coming fair, and all will be laid under contribution to this end.

As to the preliminary details, we can only say, now, that the out-door exhibition will be held on the Penobscot fair grounds, the City and Norombega Halls having been placed at the disposal of the Trustees for the in-door departments of the exhibition. Various committees of the Trustees have been appointed to arrange excursion tickets with the railroads and boats during the week of the fair, and for carrying out other necessary arrangements; and a meeting to complete this work has been called for May 7th. The premium list will be given to the public immediately after this meeting.

PENOBSCOT CENTRAL RAILROAD. At a meeting of the Corporators of the Penobscot Central Railroad Company held at East Corinth April 25th, Hon. John Thissell was chosen Chairman and T. P. Bachelder Secretary. The act incorporating said Company was read and accepted, and the following named persons were unanimously elected Directors:—William T. Pearson and Matthew Lincoln of Bangor, Searls Dore of Levant, T. P. Batchelder and William Higgins of Kenduskeag, John Morrison and Noah Barker of Corinth, C. H. Norcross and David H. Patten of Charleston, Seth Lee of Atkinson, and Ephraim Flint of Dover.

The following named persons were chosen a committee to draft By-Laws to be reported at a future meeting: Charles P. Brown, of Bangor, Lorenzo A. Bowler of Levant, John B. Nickels of Kenduskeag, D. F. Davis of Corinth, and John H. Ramsdell of Atkinson.

CINCINNATI HOTCH-POTCH. No better analogy has, for a long time, been drawn than that between the tower of Babel and the Cincinnati Convention. The confusion of tongues when that memorable monument was raised will probably be exceeded by the conflict of ideas at the great Cincinnati gathering of the clans. Free-traders will be looking askance at protectionists; amnesty-leaders will turn their backs on Gen. Palmer and others, whose only fault with President Grant is that he has appointed rebels to office. The fact is, the Cincinnati movement is propelled entirely by sore-heads of every class. All common-sense men see through the specious patriotism of the dissatisfied politicians. Trumbull himself, the loudest crier for non-partisanship, was the leading advocate in the Senate for the Congressional election bill which gave the general government control over State elections. Greeley, too, that great advocate of amnesty, was, but a short time since, clamoring most vigorously through the columns of the Tribune for the passage of the Ku-Klux bill.—[Boston Globe.

THE QUESTION OF ADJOURNMENT. "Perley" writes to the Boston Journal that the resolution to adjourn May 29th, was defeated in the House by a vote of 80 yeas to 109 nays. An analysis of the vote shows 58 Republicans and 22 Democrats recorded in the affirmative, and 58 Republicans and 51 Democrats in the negative. The New England members present and voting are recorded as follows, viz: Yeas—Messrs. Bell, Butler, Crocker, Frye, Hoar, Peters and Starkweather; nays, Messrs. Banks, Brooks, Buffinton, Dawes, Eames, Hale, Hibbard, Hooper, Parker, Poland, Twichell and Willard. Nearly all of the Pennsylvania members voted for the resolution, in the hope, no doubt, that they would thus be able to avoid being compelled to place themselves upon the record on the tariff question, because it was manifest that if Congress adjourned May 29th, there could be no action on the tariff bill. It is now thought, however, that the vote finally settles the question. A change of a few votes is all that is required, and another resolution will be introduced.

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTER. The Duke of Noailles, who has been appointed the French Minister to this Government, is said to be a man of considerable distinction, and is a member to one of the first families of France. He was a member of the Chamber of Peers throughout the reign of Louis Phillippe, but his sympathies were all that time with the other branch of Bourbons. It is thought in Washington that as a man and as a diplomat he is the most distinguished representative that France could send us.

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN. Mr. Kilbreth, the expert who has been examining the accounts of the Methodist Book Concern to investigate the charges of corruption, has made a long report, which, it is said, exonerates the Rev. Dr. Carleton, the senior agent, from all suspicion of wrong-doing or irregularity, exculpating Mr. Goodenough from the charges of fraud preferred against him by Dr. Lanahan, and vindicates the course of the present book committee.

A newspaper dispatch having announced that ex-District Attorney Geo. F. Talbot of Portland, was bound to Cincinnati as a delegate while that gentleman was preparing to sail immediately for Europe, he publishes a card in the Advertiser, asking:—

"Would it not be well to explain that the Maine delegation to Cincinnati are to take passage in the Allan Mail Steamer "Sarmatian," kindly placed at their disposal by the British Free Trade League; and that they go by way of the Straits of Belle Isle, Niagara Falls, Lake Michigan and the Illinois canal taking up full delegations on the route."

The ninth Volume of the American Edition of SPURGEON'S SERMONS revised and corrected by the author with explanatory notes, is just issued by Sheldon & Co. of N. Y., and is for sale by D. Bugbee & Co. Sermons from the pen of so noted a clergyman deserve a wide spread among readers of religious works.

HASTY CONSUMPTION CURED BY FELLOWS' HYPOPHOSPHITES.

CARBONEAR, NEWFOUNDLAND, Jan. 3, 1871.—MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.—Sir: I came to this country in May, 1869. I found a countryman of mine laboring under some affection of the lungs. I recommended your Syrup, tried at the Druggists in Harbor Grace, but they thought I was inventing the name at their expense. However, in April, 1870, Mr. Edgar Joyce rapidly wasted away with every symptom of quick consumption, so that he was unable to walk across the room, having no appetite, pains in the left side, nervous system unstrung, dry, hacking cough, &c. Fortunately I learned that your Syrup could be obtained at Mr. Dearin's, in St. John's, and immediately procured some, (showed one to W. H. Thompson, who ordered a supply from you at once.) This was Tuesday afternoon; at night he took the prescribed dose, and in the morning he described the very results notified on the wrapper. His appetite soon began to return, and a voracious one it was, too; the dry, hacking cough changed into loose but violent attacks, finally disappearing altogether; pains left his side, his hand assumed its usual steadiness, and before he finished ten bottles his health was quite restored, and to-day not a more healthy person is to be found on our streets; and it is the opinion of all, had he not been fortunate in getting your valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites, he would now be in his grave.

He happened to be in W. H. Thompson's the day your first shipment arrived, and took at once four bottles to the Labrador, which he was very anxious to do, but had not occasion to use them himself. No other medicine will he ever prescribe, recommend or give but yours.

I also recommended it to another consumptive, but have not heard from him since, as he lives in a distant part of the Island. Hoping this will give you some encouragement,

I remain, yours, &c.,

D. H. BURRIGE.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of PLANTATION BITTERS, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous VEGETABLE TONIC. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the STILL MORE VALUABLE STAMP OF PURE APPROBATION. The inestimable voucher of its rare properties as a TONIC, CORRECTIVE and ALTERATIVE, is of much earlier date than the Government credential; for millions of people have pronounced it the GRAND SPECIFIC OF THE AGE long before Congress thought of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the GENERAL PUBLIC. Ask those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits, or loss of vital power, what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries.

BILL HEADS.—We are printing bill heads at lowest possible rates—furnishing paper for same.

WARREN'S COUGH BALSAM is a household necessity. Don't take a worthless article in it's place, when the great value of this is unquestioned. mar 26 d&w

FREE COACH TO LYNDE HOTEL is the salutation that greets the traveller when he enters the depot at Rockland. He is wise if he avails himself of the offer, for the hotel is conducted throughout upon the same liberal principle.

IMMEDIATELY.—If every family knew the value of Miss Sawyer's Salve they would immediately purchase a box and never be without it. If your Druggist is out of this Salve and neglects to keep supplied, send seventy-five cents as directed in another column, and say you saw the advertisement in this paper.

AN APRIL ARIA

BY [illegible]

When the mornings lazy sky fell
With [illegible] &c thought of rain
And the robins richly all
To their mates mercurial
And the tree boughs a soak and strain
In the wind,
When the river a rough with foam,
And the new made clearings smoke,
And the clouds that go and come
Shine and darken fields and
And the frogs at evening croak
Undefined
Mysteries of monotone,
And by melting beds of snow
Wind flowers blossom all alone
Then I know
That the bitter winter s dead
O'er his head
The damp sod breaks so mellow
Its mosses tipped with points of yellow —
I cannot but be glad,
Yet this sweet mood will borrow
Something of a sweeter sorrow
To touch and turn me sad

CRIB BITING.—There are many different remedies recommended, says the Canada Farmer, for the cure of crib biting, some of which are effectual in a few cases, and fail in others The habit of crib biting is often brought on from standing too much in the stable, and especially where the stable fittings are made of unseasoned wood which horses are very fond of gnawing The remedies in these cases are plenty of regular work and the use of well seasoned and proper stable fittings A broad strap around the neck in some cases has the desired effect for when the horse seizes hold of an object with his teeth the strap presses upon his windpipe and he has to let go his hold with out accomplishing his purpose This remedy however if not altogether free of danger as it might lead to distortion of the windpipe or even cause congestion of the brain, and the cure would be worse than the disease Covering the edges of the manger with some bitter substance as aloes, will prevent him catching hold for a short time, but it soon wears off The only effectual cure for crib biting is to do away with the manger, or any object in his stall or box against which he can bite The rack for hay can be so formed that the end of each sufficient hold, and a portable manger can be used without a great deal of trouble of course it must be removed whenever he finishes his corn For a valuable horse this is the only remedy we would recommend

THE HOUSE has been erected the present season, on the corner of Park and Main Sts Rockland, and is now open for the public patronage

Clean beds pleasant rooms, good fare, and careful attendance will be offered to the guests of this house, and no pains will be spared to make their stay agreeable. Nearly every room looks out upon the bay, and every room in the house is pleasant, thus affording to persons desirous of enjoying the sea coast and spending the summer months an opportunity to do so, without locating on an island, where they can enjoy the sea air and nothing else

Have taken special pains to prepare convenient sample rooms.

Carriages to take passengers to and from the house free of charge.

Good Livery Stable connected with the house and good stable for transient horses.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of Miss SAWYER'S SALVE is its beneficial effects on the hair Rubbed on the scalp, in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair prevents it turning gray, and on baldness it produces a new growth of hair No lady should be without this valuable article as although it is not made for the hair, a little on the head, and that head is free from the fear.

From Mrs ELIZABETH COOMES Brunswick

I run work April 4 1867

MISS SAWYER I received your letter last evening and was very glad you concluded to let me take your Salve I think I can do well with it and will be quite an accommodation to my husband as he cannot get along without it He has tried everything else in all he has ever found anything that helped him so much as the Salve and I wish to say to both found it to be all and even more than you recommend it to be We have had it in the family for six years and would say it is worth fifty cents and can truly say we have never found its equal I use it for a weak back and it acts like a charm. Mr Coombs has had a Sore Sore on his leg for thirty years and would be a cripple to day if he had not found a remedy in your Salve He has tried in vain to get relief from other sources but the Salve has done him more good than all that he has ever used. I can recommend it for all it is so much better than you have not, for I use it for everything I consider it invaluable in a family If you feel that this testimony together and it can be of any service to you you are welcome

Yours &c, ELIZABETH COOMBS.
